A NEW STATE ORGANIZATION

Formed Yesterday by Virginia's Union Machinists.

DELEGATES PRESENT

From All Parts of the State—Officers Elected and Business Agent and State Organizer Chosen—List of the Delegates—A Very Enjoyable Smoker Ends the Day.

Pursuant to announcement delegates from the Roanoke, Alexandria, Norfolk, Portsmouth, Newport News, Salem, Crewe, Clifton Forge and Radford local branches of the International Association of Machinists met yesterday at noon at Central Labor Union Hall, Norfolk, to effect a State organization and put a business agent and State organizer in the field.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. D. J. Reardon, of Portsmouth, organizer for Virginia and North Carolina, and Mr. Walter W. Gaskins, of Norfolk, was chosen temporary chairman. Mr. Reardon was elected temporary secretary.

Addresses on the aims, objects and benefits of a State organization were made by Messrs. M. S. Belk, of Newport News; W. L. German, of Roanoke; W. F. Robertson, of Clifton Forge; Louis Shieman and D. J. Reardon, of Portsmouth.

The chairman then announced committees as follows:
Credentials—J. P. Casey, of Norfolk; M. S. Belk, of Newport News, and W.
F. Robertson, of Portsmouth.

Permanent Organization—W. L. German, of Roanoke; F. H. Buck, of Alexandria, and J. R. McCumber, of Alexandria.

Resolutions—M. E. Belk, of Newport News; D. J. Reardon, of Portsmouth, and John T. Whelan, of Norfolk.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The convention opened its afternoon session at 1:30 p. m., when election of officers was taken up.

The Board of Directors elected was as follows: W. W. Gaskins, of Norfolk; W. L. German, of Roanoke; M. S. Belk, of Newport News; D. J. Reardon, of Portsmouth, and E. L. Adams, of Norfolk, late of Richmond, Va.

Mr. E. L. Adams was chosen business agent and State organizer. His headquarters for this section will be in Norfolk.

The association adopted by-laws and rules of order to govern the business agency and the State association.

The business agent and State organizer will be a very important officer and find a wide field for energetic and intelligent action. His duties will be to further in every proper way the interests of the association and its members throughout the State, to place the unemployed and prevent and adjust trouble between employees and employers.

THE SMOKER.

A very enjoyable "Smoker" followed the evening session. This was given by Machinists' Union, No. 11, of Norfolk. Mr. R. R. Adams, of Norfolk, presided as permanent chairman. The smoker was opened with a short address by W. Pearson, of Norfolk.

The program was as follows: Speech—Brother J. B. Casey, president State Federation of Labor.

Recreation—Mr. Deming.
Speech—Brother Belk, of Newport News, and Brother German, of Norfolk.

Male Quartette.
Speech—Brother Reardon, district organizer.

Song—Mr. Mowry, of Norfolk Typographical Union.

Closing speech—L. V. Curtis, of C. M.
U., and president of the C. L. U.

THE DELEGATES.

The Norfolk delegation included Mr.
W. W. Gaskins, chairman, and Messrs.
C. L. Walton, Walter Pearson, C.
Fletcher Miller and J. P. Casey.

The Portsmouth delegation included Mr. D. J. Reardon, chairman, and Messrs. W. F. Robertson, E. C. Moulton, George Ganzer, G. E. Padgett, Louis Shieman, T. Collins, W. H. Whittington.

Norfolk and Portsmouth were both largely represented by members of the local unions.

The delegation from Newport News was as follows: Mr. M. S. Belk, chairman; T. J. Kilmartin, Walter J. Herman, James B. Flynn, George Sharp-less, Harry Hooper, John McGuigan, A.
G. Anderson, Wm. Butts, J. D. Berry.
Beside the above authorized delegates the delegation was accompanied by Messrs. Wm. Jones, John E. Vassey, Harry Edwards, J. Clarence Paine, F.
S. Adams, P. H. Weiseger, J. J. O'Donnell.

The representatives from Roanoke were Mr. W. L. German, chairman; and Messrs. C. A. McWilliams, John Sheets, Walter L. Scott, A. E. Riley, C. D.
Burne, J. C. Goddard and A. E. Weldon.
Those from Salem were Mr. John Williams, chairman; and Messrs. Hugh Stevens and John Ragland.

Those from Crewe were Mr. J. P.
Sales, chairman; and Messrs. Thomas Hughes, Frank De Long, John Fairfax, Thomas Mays, W. J. Owens, J. W.
Stikley and A. C. Carr.

Those from Radford were Mr. F. P.
Dudley, chairman; and Messrs. C. A.
Clark, A. C. Mayo and F. A. Wyson.
The Alexandria delegation included Mr. F. H. Buck, chairman; and Messrs.
J. S. Perkins, J. H. Bryan, James Mc-Comber and Walter Jones.

The delegate from Clifton Forge was Henry Berry.

THE NORFOLK GRIDIRON.

TIGERS AND COWBOYS CONTEST FOR SUPREMACY.

At the Y. M. C. A. Park yesterday afternoon two local football eleven, the "Tigers" and the "Cowboys," assembled to compete for supremacy on the gridiron. Neither team was able to score, although the Tigers got slightly the best of it.

The Cowboys were unable to get the ball in their opponents' territory during the game, but by good all-round work, kept the Tigers from scoring. The Tigers in the last half of the game would probably have scored, but for the time limit, which was called on them when they were within a few feet of the Cowboys' goal. These two teams are about evenly matched, and will arrange for another game in the near future.
The following is the line-up of both teams:

Tigers—Hanlin, R. G.; Ryan, L. G.; Cannon, R. T.; D. Gale, L. T.; Small,
R. E.; B. Lee, L. E.; Pond, R. H. B.; Barry, L. H. B.; Lawler, F. B.; L.
Lawler, Quarter, Center, Stevens, Cowboys—Sheldon, Center, Stevens, R. G.; Farrant, L. G.; Bradford, R. T.; L. T.; Cochran, R. E.; Davis, L.
E.; Dines, Quarter, J. Woodard, F. R.;

Thanksgiving Day in Norfolk

Thanksgiving Day passed off in Norfolk without a noteworthy occurrence. At least nothing happened that is not likely to happen on any Thanksgiving Day. The Seaboard Air Line Band paraded the streets discoursing excellent music, attracting much attention and winning unstinted praise, and religious services were held as per announcement in yesterday morning's Virginia-Pilot. Sunday hours were observed at the postoffice, and, with the exception of the Police Court and station, business was practically suspended in all the municipal, State and Federal departments of the respective governments. Many thanksgiving offerings were made, an account of which will be found elsewhere in to-day's paper.
Upon the whole it was a quiet Thanksgiving Day and was noticeable because of a suspension of business generally.

A Fireman's Brave Deed.

A horse and wagon containing a small boy was observed dashing down Chapel street about 12 o'clock yesterday, and no doubt the occupant of the vehicle would have been seriously injured had not Fireman W. M. Morton and an unknown gentleman checked the animal's speed in front of St.
Mary's Catholic Church. Fireman Morton caught the horse in the nostrils and was hit on the wrist. The blood flowed from the wound freely. The horse had been left standing on the street to feed with the bit out of its mouth.

A colored boy jumped in the wagon and attempted to stop the runaway, but was unable to do so. He behaved like a young hero, but breathed a sigh of relief when his wild ride was brought to an end.

Entertainment by Children

The children of the members of the Montefiore Library and Social Association entertained their little friends and elders at Montefiore Hall last night in a very delightful manner.

They gave an entertainment consisting of vocal and instrumental music and presented two pleasing little comedies in an excellent manner. The little ones taking part displayed much ability and acquitted themselves in a most creditable manner. The children and those who assisted them in preparing the entertainment deserve much credit for the success of the affair in every particular.

Jackson Light Infantry To-Night

Every member of the Jackson Light Infantry has been urgently requested by Captain Thomas J. Nottingham to attend a meeting at 8 o'clock to-night in the Armory. Colonel Joe Lane Stern, inspector general of Virginia, will be present to discuss the company into the service of the State. For this reason it is absolutely necessary that every member of the company be present.

Funeral of Mr. Herman.

The funeral of Mr. Joseph Herman, whose sudden death occurred Wednesday morning, was held from the residence, No. 212 Princess Anne avenue, at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Rev. J.
E. Shenk, of the First Lutheran Church, officiating. The interment was in Elmwood Cemetery. Following were the pall-bearers: A. H. Herbert, D. L.
Drewry, A. J. Jarman, George Kroeder, H. Fellant and C. Walker.

Evening Thanksgiving Party.

A very pleasant Thanksgiving party was given by Miss Luna Fulford last night at the residence of Mrs. S. C.
Simmons, East Main street. Little Miss Fulford gracefully entertained about thirty-five of her young friends. The evening was passed very pleasantly with games, vocal and instrumental music and tempting refreshments.

"LAND GRABBERS" ACT

An Applicant For Delinquent Nor- folk Lands Appeals to Courts.

Ask Judge Hancock for a Mandamus to Compel Clerk Royster to Accept Delinquent Taxes Which Were Paid by Another Party.

The famous "Land-Grabbers" Act will be tested in the Corporation Court to-morrow morning. While the matter has not been brought into court to make a test case of it, it is learned that the mandamus proceedings instituted by Mr. W. E. Swann, of Richmond, to compel the clerk of the Corporation Court to receive the back taxes on a certain piece of Norfolk property, so as to give Mr. Swann possession of the same, will virtually amount to a test of the much-talked-of law.

Mr. Swann has taken advantage of the "Land-Grabbers" Act, and has filed about 500 claims for property in Virginia, on which there are delinquent tax claims. Between fifty and fifty-five claims were filed by him for Norfolk property. The first applications were filed sometime ago, and some of the property owners paid up the back tax within the four months' limit allowed by law, and also paid the $5 fee which the act allows the person filing the first claim for property in the city several days with his attorney, Mr. Justice of Richmond, preparing to make formal application for deeds to the property which was not redeemed within the time prescribed by law.

THE PROPERTY IN DISPUTE.

A house and lot on Falkland street, owned by Mrs. Alice F. Scott, formerly, and which appears to have been held by a deed of trust executed in favor of the Mutual Building Association of which Messrs. George W. Dey, T. R.
Borland and J. W. Hunter are trustees, was one of the pieces of property claimed by Mr. Swann. Wednesday, Messrs.
Baker & Son, counsel for the owner or owners of this property, paid Deputy Clerk Julius A. Coleman the back tax, it amounting to $9.31, and also paid the expenses incurred in the application, including the $5 fee. Upon learning of this Mr. Swann went to Mr. Coleman and offered to pay the same taxes, claiming that inasmuch as the four months allowed by law for the owner to redeem the property had passed, it was his upon paying the back taxes thereon. Mr. Coleman consulted Judge Thomas H. Wilcox, Clerk of Royster's private counsel, and upon his advice refused to take the taxes from Mr.
Swann. The latter has now asked Judge Hancock for a mandamus compelling the clerk or his deputy to accept the taxes. Judge Wilcox accepted service for his client, Mr. Royster, without waiving any right to except to the time of the notice or any informality on its face.

The original bill for the delinquent taxes is held by City Sergeant Lawler.
Messrs. Baker & Son hold Deputy Clerk Coleman's receipt for them.
Judge Wilcox said to a Virginian-Pilot reporter that the law would be defeated. Its constitutionality will be questioned and Judge Hancock may be called upon to decide the matter upon this basis.

Police Court Racket.

The following Thanksgiving Day unfortunates were dealt with in the Police Court yesterday:

Caleb Mason, colored, who is said to be insane, will be examined by a commission of lunacy this morning.

Jane Hardy, colored, charged with cutting up a hat, was dismissed upon payment of costs, which her accuser, William Weaver, colored, was made to share equally with her.

Annie Smith and Austin Prant, both colored, charged each other with assault and a fine of $1 and costs each was the result.

John Hunter, charged with tearing up a cloak belonging to Mary Pitts, colored, was fined $1 and costs.

Mary Shaw, colored, paid 50c. and costs for being a nuisance.

Three drunks, included in the docket, were disposed of as follows: One was fined $1 and costs and two were discharged.

Negroes Adjudged Insane.

James H. Forest, aged 24 years, and Lena Mills, aged 16 years, both colored, were adjudged insane by a commission in lunacy Wednesday afternoon and ordered sent to the Central State Hospital, at Petersburg. The Mills girl, in a fit of insanity, cut her mother quite badly. Forest was not violent, but would talk foolishly and perform antics that no sane person would undertake.

Oil From the Whale.

A total of sixty barrels of sperm oil is said to have been obtained from the big whale washed ashore on Pleasure House Beach. Every particle of the flesh of the big fish was boiled to a crackling, thereby securing all the oil that was contained in its carcass.

THE ELKS CELEBRATE.

ONE OF THE FINEST OYSTER ROASTS EVER GIVEN BY THE ORDER.

Norfolk's Lodge of Elks celebrated the fourteenth anniversary of its organization in a very agreeable manner by giving one of its famous old Virginia oyster roasts yesterday at Ocean View. The line of march and train schedule was adhered to as published, and the parade was extremely creditable. It was headed by the Seaboard Air Line Band in full uniform.
The day was spent at the View in eating oysters raw and oysters roasted, and the oysters were flanked by celery, crackers, and sandwiches. The Elks lined up along a big table back of the hotel, and it kept about twenty-five expert colored oysters shuckers and roasters busy to satisfy the appetites of the Elks.

The band played at frequent intervals and made many friends, for it was all ready to respond to requests for more music. This band is one of the best in the South and deserves the high place it has won in public esteem. A vote of thanks was passed for the band and its talented leader, Prof. H. F. Maxim, and three cheers and a tiger were also given. A laughable feature of the afternoon was an impromptu cake walk by two little colored urchins, who gave a pleasing performance and were rewarded with handfuls of small coins. At 5 o'clock the Elks took the train for home.

NEWSPAPER CHANGE.

REORGANIZATION OF NORFOLK DISPATCH COMPANY.

The Norfolk Dispatch Company was reorganized last night as follows: President—Rev. Charles I. Stengle.
Secretary—Treasurer—H. T. Hurt.
Business Manager—H. T. Plummer.
Mr. J. C. Siebert will retire from the company.

Mr. Stengle has purchased a big share of the stock and will succeed Mr. Theodore Stuart as editor of the Dispatch.
He has had considerable experience in journalism, having owned and edited the Accomac (Va.) Review in 1892-'93 and previous to this, did special work on the Morning News and Evening Journal of Wilmington, Del. In his college days he published the Philomathean, a society paper, and while pastor of Armory Church in Dover, Del., edited the Advocate. Since coming to Norfolk and in connection with the Union Mission work here, he published the Beacon Light, a Home Mission paper.
He will enter upon the duties of his new position to-day.

Virginia Beach.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the Norfolk and Southern Railroad Company, which embraces the schedule of the Norfolk, Virginia Beach and Southern railroad, taking effect to-day.

Trains now leave Norfolk for Virginia Beach (daily except Sunday) at 7:00 a. m., 11:30 a. m. and 5:10 p. m., and on Sunday at 10 a. m.

All tickets should be purchased from station agents before departure of trains to get the benefit of lower fare.
